Kills Two Children and Seriously
Shoots Couple More.

SOUGHT TO SUICIDE

James M. Brennan and Second Wife Had Several Quarrels About the Little Ones Previous to This Awful Affair.

Minneapolis, Nov. 4.—Mrs. James
M. Brennan had a quarrel with her husband Saturday morning about 1:30 o'clock, and after he had gone to work she shot and killed two of his four children by Brennan's former marriage, and so seriously wounded the other two that their recovery is doubtful. She then fired a bullet from the revolver into her left breast with probably fatal results.

Mrs. Brennan and her husband frequently had trouble about the children.
Lizzie, aged fifteen years, was shot through a temple; Alice, aged eight years, was shot in the back; Thomas, aged thirteen, and Arthur, aged eleven, were shot in the head. The boys and their step-mother were taken to the city hospital. The boys struggled desperately to avoid the fate of their sisters, the girls being killed.

BOYCOTT LITERATURE.

This Is Believed Responsible For the Recent Massacre.

Hongkong, Nov. 4.—As a result of the recent massacre of American missionaries at Lienchow an important edict has been issued directing the viceroys of Canton to furnish efficient protection to missionaries, punish all guilty persons and to promise fullest redress and warning, and he has been held responsible for further outrages and for protection of missions.

American Consul General Lay in an interview declares the dissemination of inflammatory boycott literature is indirectly responsible for the massacre, and he has warned isolated stations of their danger, in view of the fact that feeling against American is growing stronger, and advising departure of missionaries for head stations.

Anti-American newspapers are being distributed gratis, being taken in junks to Canton. Four Chinese gun-boats and 320 soldiers are proceeding to Ching Yuen.

GOES WITH VICEROY.

Consul General Lay Will Accompany
Official to Lienchow.

Washington, Nov. 4.—The state department, after a conference with naval officials here and communication by cable with Consul General Lay at Canton, China, has arranged that that official shall accompany the viceroy of Canton on the Chinese gunboat to Lienchow to investigate the massacre of five Presbyterian missionaries at that place. One or two American naval officers from gunboats at Quieres or Calao will accompany Mr. Lay to assist in the investigation.

FINLAND'S FREEDOM.

Claimed That Country Has Succeeded in Her Long Effort.

London, Nov. 4.—The second edition of the London Times of Saturday published the following dispatch from St.
Petersburg: Finland has won her freedom. A manifesto embodying all demands was presented by popular delegates to Prince John Obolensky, governor general, to be submitted to Secretary of State Luidor for his imperial signature at Peterhof. The keystone of the new Finnish constitution is the responsibility, not of a monarch as heretofore, but of secretary of state and the diet. The presence of Russian warships off Helingsfors is intended to signify that although the Emperor grants constitutional freedom, he intends to prevent severance of the grand duchy from the empire.

SHIPS AND TROOPS.

Three of Former and Ten Thousand of Latter Have Arrived.

Helsingfors, Nov. 4.—Three Russian battleships, a cruiser and 10,000 troops arrived here from Reval. The warships are anchored in the harbor. The general strike continues. The situation is threatening on account of the Socialists. There is no light and no communication by railroad or telegraph with the interior. A single wire is working intermittently to St. Petersburg.

BRILLIANT AFFAIR.

Farewell Reception to Wright and His Family Largely Attended.

Manila, Nov. 4.—The public reception to Governor Wright and family was attended by Americans, foreigners and Filipinos. It was the most brilliant affair of the kind ever given in the Philippines. There were many manifestations of loyalty and the hope was generally expressed that Governor Wright would return to the islands. The procession took two hours in passing the point where the governor was stationed. A civic ball followed.

BRAZOS LANDS TOO CHEAP.

An Ellis County Capitalist Sees the Situation as it is.

Mr. Majors, an Ellis county capitalist, who lives at Midlothian, was seen by an Eagle representative on the H. & T. C. train yesterday, and in conversation regarding Texas lands and prices, Mr. Majors expressed the opinion that there is a good speculation in Brazos county real estate at the present prices. The prevailing prices for lands in this section he thinks are too low as compared with the prices of farming lands in his part of the state, which range from $50.00 to $75.00 per acre. He thinks there will be a sharp advance here in the course of a year or so, in fact he notices such a tendency now.

Mr. Majors owns a farm near Navasota, and has been down there to see after it. He thinks he will likely invest in more lands in this section, before they get higher.

TWO MEN ARRESTED.

One of the Parties Has Told Considerable of Crime.

SENSATIONAL STORY

Howard Says He Threw Overboard From Ferryboat Head of Young Woman and Crawford the Corpse's Limbs.

New York, Nov. 3.—Two men are under arrest at police headquarters in this city charged with homicide in connection with the complicity in the suit case mystery in Boston. One of the men, William Howard, is said to have confessed that he and his fellow-prisoner, Louis Crawford, alias Albert H. Emery, were the ones who took the body from a hospital on Tremont street, Boston, and threw the dismembered portions which were concealed in dress suit cases and a hand satchel, into Winthrop (Mass.), harbor. Howard denies that he knows anything about the cutting up of the body, while Crawford refuses to say a word. Chief Inspector Watts of Boston is on his way here with witnesses who say they saw the men throw the body from ferryboats.

In the arrest of the two men here, the police declare that the solution of the dress suit case mystery will be reached and that the person primarily responsible for the death of Susan Geary, a chorus girl of the "Shepherd King" company, will soon be in the hands of the police.

William Howard, who has an alias of Hunt, is thirty-six years old. He says he is an engineer by occupation and that he has lived, since he came here, in a furnished rooming-house in East Fourteenth street.

Albert H. Emery, alias Crawford, is a theatrical agent. Howard, as soon as he was placed under arrest, the police say, freely told the complete story of the disposition of the body, but absolutely denies that he knows who performed the operation on the chorus girl which caused her death, or who dismembered the body. He was hired to help Crawford, he swears, to dispose of the body and this is all he has had to do with the case, although he admits that he knew that the girl died under suspicious circumstances, and that her body had been cut up.

Howard and Crawford were arrested Thursday night. As soon as the men were taken to police headquarters Howard broke down and made the alleged confession.

According to the prisoner's sworn statement, as related by the police, Howard has known Crawford for more than three years. Crawford has been employed at various times by patent medicine concerns throughout the United States, but for some time past he has been engaged in managing what he police say is a lying-in hospital, conducted by his mother-in-law, Dr. Anne Bishop, on Tremont street, Boston.

On the morning of Sept. 9, last, two days before the dismembered body of Susan Geary was found, Howard called Dr. Bishop's place to see Crawford. Howard said he needed money badly the time and when Crawford suggested that he was in a position to get a good fee he quickly jumped at a chance.

"Now I've got a chance to let you see a good piece of money," Crawford alleged to have said to Howard, "only you must be mighty careful and keep your mouth shut. One of our patients is dead and we have got to get rid of it by all means and without delay." Then he went on to tell Howard, according to the confession, that a man had died from the effects of an infection. He explained in detail what was required to remove the remains some spot where they would not be covered for some time.

"How much is there in it?" Howard asked. "One hundred dollars," answered Crawford, and immediately, Howard, the deal was closed. They made appointment to meet at the hospital following morning. Howard ended the reception room the next day Crawford kept Howard there until, when Crawford handed Howard a small hand satchel, the latter, while Crawford himself carried a suit case. Howard was told what was in the bag and satchel, but was asked that no suspicion would be attracted to them. They then started for Boston ferry and on the way Crawford explained that they would throw the body in the harbor at the opportunity. Crawford told Howard not to lose his nerve and they did accomplish their object without trouble.

When they boarded the ferryboat, over there was more people going to Boston than had been expected, and says, and no favorable opportunity presented itself. At East Boston they ashore and rode on a city car to Orient Heights and reached. On reaching the ferry house there were few people in the vicinity, when the craft was well out in the m. Crawford said, "Let 'er go." Howard dropped the satchel which contained the head of the dead girl. Crawford dropped over the stern suit case containing the limbs. Crawford told him that there was another portion of the body to be disposed of and straightway they went to Tremont street hospital and got the suit case. Howard says he and Crawford, with Crawford, to the Chelsea ferry where they hired a boat, and when nobody was g threw the suit case into the water. Before he left Crawford, Howard received $60, he says. Next day he saw Crawford holding out $10 and they had not taken in much at all.

Days later Howard was startled when he heard newsboys calling out a suit case and at once he went to hospital and told Crawford. Howard and Crawford were taken to hospital and wanted to leave town, but gave him some more money.

he says, and told him that he intended to get out with him and that he would accompany him to New York.

On Sept. 22 they came to New York. Shortly afterwards the police of this city received a message from the Boston authorities asking them to look out for Crawford, who, it was believed, could throw some light on the mystery. It was by constantly watching the New York theatrical agencies that the two men now in custody were located.

The four witnesses are Joseph Berkman and his partner, Louis Milensky, proprietor of a loan company; Meyer Rubin, another pawnbroker, and Timothy Howard, a hack driver. Berkman and Rubin claimed to have sold the suit cases in which the dismembered parts of the body were placed, and thrown into the harbor, while Howard, the hackman, drove two men who carried two heavy dress suit cases to the Chelsea ferry.

A ring was identified as Miss Geary's. It was pawned by a friend of Nathan.

had done more to cement the kindly relations between the north and south than anything else that has happened since the close of the war. Mr. Jessup asked the Chamber of Commerce to send resolutions of commendation to the president and was himself appointed to communicate the views of the chamber on this subject to Mr. Roosevelt.

OVER SMALL AREAS.

All Upper Districts of New Orleans Practically Fever Free.

New Orleans, Nov. 3.—The rapid progress which is being made in completing the expulsion of yellow fever from New Orleans is shown by the fact that the cases now remaining are scattered over small areas in the lower section of the city, all the upper districts and Algiers being practically free. There was but one new case up to 6 o'clock Thursday evening.

It has been a week since the state board of health has been informed of the appearance of new cases of yellow fever outside of New Orleans. At almost every point where the fever heretofore existed, it has rather entirely disappeared and remaining cases are convalescing.

At Pensacola.

Pensacola, Fla., Nov. 3.—Three new cases of yellow fever were reported up to 6 o'clock Thursday evening. Dr. Fowler Thomas, an Alabama dentist, was reported in dying condition.

SOCIAL and Club Matters

Mrs. L. L. McInnis and Miss McInnis gave an elaborate reception on Thursday afternoon which served to open the season in a most auspicious manner, and to compliment the score of charming girls whose names compose the Bachelor Girls' Club roster, of which circle Miss McInnis is president. Edgar Derden opened the door to the ladies, Miss Frances Hall held the silver card receiver and Miss Lilla Adams took the wraps in charge. Everywhere the good taste of the hostess was manifest, the decorations being both effective and elegant, and forming a dainty setting for the number of well gownned women who called during the receiving hours. The reception parlors were done in green and pink, effected in the candles, the La France roses and the ferns.

In line with Miss McInnis in the parlor were the honorees, Misses Jessie Garth, Sadie Cavitt, Elma Harbers, Lavinia McConico, Irene Keeling, Marie Adams, Lucy Board, Edith Rhodes, Lynn Crudginton, Emily Thomas, Arrie Cole, Alma Cole, Nonie Adams and Mary Pitts.

Mrs. McInnis received in the library, assisted by Mesdames Brandon, Julia Wipprecht, Harrison, Lanham and Nagle of College, Hanway, Adams, Ed Hall and Robert S. Webb. In the dining room, which was brilliant with color, the following young ladies looked to the refreshment of the guests: Misses Jennie Howell, Ethel Cavitt, Norma Calhoun of Houston, Virginia West, Lillian Parks, Elsbeth Wipprecht, Alberta Adams and Malcolm McInnis. The refreshments were cream and cake, carrying out the club colors of pink and green. A decorative feature of significant sentiment was the large pink mousseline love knot in the center of the table, tied by the president of the girls' club, and bespeaking the unity of feeling existing among the members. The extensive popularity of the hostess and her daughter was attested by the large number of callers, more than one hundred ladies having left cards.

One of the most unique and successful entertainments of the week was the Hallowe'en party given Tuesday night by Miss Nonie Adams, complimentary to Miss Norma Calhoun of Houston. It is a recognized fact that an invitation to the Adams home is a guaranty of a good time, and on this occasion the prestige enjoyed by Miss Adams as an entertainer was well sustained.

Hallowe'en games were indulged in and excitement ran high. A witch stirred a cauldron and chanted the mystic words that wrought a spell on men and maids.

Jack o' lanterns and pumpkins with fiery eyes grinned everywhere. Fortunes were told by "bobbing" apples and floating tiny lifeboats on miniature seas. As the silver tongue of the witch's chimneys tolled twelve o'clock, both men and maids started out in quest of their fate by going around the house in opposite directions. Before a happy solution was reached two ghosts scattered the wayfarers in search of their fortune, and the problem remains unsolved.

Miss Calhoun, as honoree, received "The Spinster Book" as a guest prize, for having failed to secure a fortunate reading by the fates. A salad course was served on a table lighted with tiny candles in the bowl of apples. The place cards were unique, and the whole effect was genuinely clever.

Those present were: Misses Norma Calhoun, Jennie Howell, Louise Brown of Houston, Lilla Graham McInnis, Irene Keeling, Jessie Garth, Marie Adams and the hostess; Messrs. Saunders, Howard Cavitt, Robert Harrison, Coulter, Stevenson, Robinson, Oliver and Sam McConico.

The first open meeting of the Mutual Improvement Club for this season was held Wednesday afternoon in the club's rooms in Carnegie Library. A Russo-Japan program had been arranged for the afternoon and quite a number of invited guests were present to enjoy it with the club.

In the absence of the president, Mrs. M. W. Sims, Mrs. A. M. Waldrop presided. The game is no stranger to Mrs. Waldrop, as she served the club efficiently in the capacity of president last year, and on this occasion evinced her usual tact and graciousness. The members answered to roll call with slogans of great generals.

The first number on the program was a beautifully rendered piano solo, "The Russian National Air," by Miss Pritchett.

A paper, "Napoleon and Oyama," by Mr. F. Marion Law, was both instructive and beautiful, and was the last of the afternoon. 'Tis said that no paper ever read before the club surpassed this one, and it is regretted that more persons could not have heard it.

This was followed by short talks on "Nelson and Togo." Mrs. J. Webb Howell then sang sweetly, as she always does, "My Dreams."

The closing number on the program was conversation by the club members on John Paul Jones.

L. S. Ross Chapter, U. D. C., held a pleasant and profitable meeting at the home of Mrs. Paul M. Raysor, Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock, with Mrs. J. W. Doremus, vice-president, presiding. After a business session the following historical program engaged the attention of the ladies and was much enjoyed:

1. Roll call answered with names of favorite Confederate heroes.

2. Song, Bonnie Blue Flag—Chapter.

3. Which divisions were actively engaged in battle of Cedar Creek, October, '64? Who commanded these divisions?—Rise and Fall of Confederate Government. Vol. II, pp. 587-541, Jefferson Davis.

4. Who commanded Confederate forces in battle of Franklin, Tenn., and what does Davis say of this battle?

5. Song, Stonewall Jackson's Way—Mrs. J. D. West.

6. Reading—Mrs. J. S. Ford.

7. Discussion, Retaliation, as practiced by the South during the Civil War.

8. Song, "For Southland Loved"—Chapter.

The hostess served a dainty salad course at the conclusion of the exercises.

Thursday, Nov. 2nd, the pupils of Villa Maria Academy received their report cards, after the customary monthly oral examinations, and the creditable rendition of the following program:

1. Opening Hymn.

2. The Dream of the Reapers—Musical Selection—Miss H. Conitz.

3. The Spanish Mother—Recitation—Miss A. Hardy.

4. Consolation—Mendelssohn—Miss A. Field.

5. Fretting—Recitation—Miss H. Carroll.

6. Book of Gold—Streabbog—Miss A. DeWalt.

7. Retrospect of the Doings at Villa Maria in September and October—Miss R. Davis.

8. Romance—Piano and Violin—Misses S. and A. Price.

The Epworth Leaguers and many of their friends had a delightful Hallowe'en phantom party Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Preston, with Miss Edith Preston as hostess. The party was planned as a charity benefit and postponed until Friday night in order to give many who are in school an opportunity to attend. There was a large crowd present and a nice sum was realized from the 10 cents admission fees. The young people were masked in white, and the young ladies, who assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Zimmerman and went together to the Preston residence, presented a decidedly ghostly appearance. The many popular Hallowe'en amusements were enjoyed to the fullest extent and everybody had a jolly good time. Cream and wafers were the refreshments served.

Miss Norma Calhoun of Houston, who has been the guest of Mrs. Robt. S. Webb the past few days, was complimented with an informal party at the Webb home Friday evening. Ten couples of young people were present and enjoyed the evening. Cream and cake were served. Guests: Misses Calhoun, Howell, Nonie Adams, Batte, Marie Adams, Thomas, Emily Thomas, Peale, Ethel Cavitt; Messrs. Harrison, Dunlap, Moyes, Cox, Stevens, Cavitt, Rev. B. B. Hall, Tom Wilson, Chatham, Geo. A. Adams.

Of the many pleasant afternoons spent of late by the Embroidery Club, perhaps none have been more thoroughly enjoyed than the meeting with Miss Ethel Cavitt Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, at the home of her parents, Major and Mrs. W. R. Cavitt. The pretty parlor was made more attractive by the adornment of pot plants. A phonograph furnished much enjoyment with popular airs. At a suitable hour the hostess served her guests with a salad course.

VICTORY AT DALLAS.

Wonderful Record Made by a Brazos
Count Herd of Red Polled Cattle.
Three Hundred and Thirty Dollars in Prizes.

Howell Bros. sent their herd of beautiful Red Polled cattle, eleven in number, to the Dallas fair again this year, and again won prizes in an almost unprecedented manner. Their farm manager, Mr. Gilbert, who is in Dallas with the exhibit, wired Howell Bros. Friday night that they had made a clean sweep in every class they entered except two. How much this means is further shown by the following partial report in greater detail.

"Dr. Corporal," the head of the herd, won first in aged bull class; also won the sweepstakes prize for best animal of the breed exhibited at the fair. In the same class Howell Bros. "Imported Trimmer" got third.

In the two-year-old heifers competition Howell Bros. took first on Lucy H. She also won the grand sweepstakes prize for best cow at any age.

In heifers between one and two years old, Howell Bros. had three entries, and took first, second and third prizes—about as much as one could expect was it not?

In competition on heifer calves under one year old, the second prize was taken.

In bull calves under one year old, 1st and 2nd were taken.

In the competition of best four calves get of one bull, the first prize was taken.

In breeders' young herd, for the best bull and four females under 2, the Bryan herd took first.

Best two animals, product of one cow, Howell Bros. took second.

Best pair, one bull and one heifer, first prize.

The sum of all the prizes captured by these meek hornless beauties from Bryan is the neat sum of $330.00. In competition with them were two crack herds of Red Polls, both much advertised as fine registered stock, one herd of twenty-eight animals and one of seventeen.

Dr. Corporal, the head of Howell Bros. herd, is without doubt, since his many victories at stock shows, entitled to the fame of being the best Red Polled bull in the south today. He is the eleventh calf of Dorothy, sired by Corporal. To show Corporal's standing, his picture is used by the Red Polled Breeders' Association in their official seal. His son, the "Doctor," seems a worthy son of a noble sire. Full sisters of his, the property of J. W. Martin of Richmond City, Wisconsin, are so much esteemed that their owner has refused $1000 each for them. Dorothy has had fifteen calves and is now nursing two calves. This shows her qualities as a breeder and milker.

Howell Bros. are offering heifers for sale at Dallas at $200.00 each, and do not care particularly to sell at that figure, for they have another fine bunch of prizes waiting for them at San Antonio, and also at the fine stock show in Fort Worth in the spring.

ROCKHILL INFORMED.

Minister to China Told of Attack on American Missionaries.

Washington, Nov. 4.—Rockhill, minister at Peking, telegraphs the state department that he has been informed by the foreign office of an attack on October 28 by a mob upon the American Presbyterian mission station at Linchow, in the province of Canton, in which the mission was destroyed and five missionaries were killed. Two missionaries, one by the name of Patterson, and the other having the Chinese name of Ming, escaped. Immediately upon the advice of the foreign minister the emperor published an edict ordering the viceroy of Canton to inflict exemplary punishment upon the perpetrators and all guilty officials and directed compensation to be made and adequate protection to be afforded for all missions. Mr. Rockhill is informed that the attack resulted from the refusal of the missionaries to permit the firing of cannon by the village people during a festival. He expects further details from the foreign office.

SEIZED IDOLS.

Action of Mrs. Machle Brought About the Lienchau Massacre.

London, Nov. 4.—A dispatch to the Daily Express from Hongkong says that the Lienchau massacre was due to the unhappy action of Mrs. Machle, who, on the refusal of some of the national procession to desist from worshipping the idols they carried, seized the idols and declined to restore them to their owners. Thereupon the infuriated processionists destroyed the mission and assaulted the inmates. They then murdered and threw their bodies into the river. The mob did not interfere with six French priests residing in the neighborhood.

WAYS OF SWEDEN.

It is light all night in summer and dark all day in winter.

Although drinking is common, one seldom sees a drunken man.

Everybody trusts you, and you are expected to trust everybody.

You take off your hat when you enter a shop and return the shopman's low bow.

A servant who brings you something says, "So good." You say, "Tack" (thanks).

You get a bill every day at the hotel. This permits you to correct any mistakes at once.

A barber will shave you for 6 cents, but you have to wash your own face and comb your own hair.

Tips are everywhere given, but they are small. Ten ore (2½ cents) is the ordinary tip to a cabman or porter.

A lady always waits for a gentleman to speak instead of the reverse, as in America.—Minneapolis Journal.

How a Great Actor Lived.

Charles Matthews, one day previous to the period of his publicly proclaimed dire bankruptcy, invited a friend to dine with him. The walnuts were washed down by some rare sherry. "That's a delicious wine," his friend exclaimed. "It must have cost you a lot of money." "It didn't cost me anything that I know of," the flighty comedian answered, with a shrug. "You had it given to you, then?" the friend suggested. "Oh, no," answered Matthews; "I bought it from Ellis, in Bond street." "But he will charge you something for it?" the friend exclaimed in astonishment. "I believe he does write something down in a book," Charles retorted gravely. "Let's have another glass, my boy."

How John Hay Regarded Critics. John Hay was chatting about his literary experiences with an intimate friend when the latter asked:

"John, what feature or phase of this writing business has impressed you the most?"

"Well," was the reply, and the speaker's eyes twinkled mischievously, "so far as I am concerned, it's the things that the critics fish out of a fellow's printed stuff that he never put there. But I suppose that critics, like the rest of us, have to show excuses for living."—Success Magazine.

Crockett's Revenge.

There is a story of Crockett of "Slickt Minister" fame to the effect that when he offered his first volume to a Scotch firm they returned it with a polite note assuring him that there was no market for that sort of thing. The letter was marked "No. 396b." In later years when the same publishers asked him for one of his manuscripts he politely requested them to refer to their previous correspondence with him marked "396b."

MASTERS OF CARVING.

Our Ancestors Had a Vocabulary We Have Quite Forgotten.

What do we moderns know about carving? I say that I carve a pheasant when I divide it into two more or less equal portions. Not so our ancestors. Carving is an art. Let me quote from an old book on carving some of the terms of that art:

Remember that there were carving masters in those days, professors of the art. They were itinerants. They did not keep school. They went from house to house and taught the ladies. As for their social position, I have not ascertained it. Probably they were classed with the itinerant portrait painter. Certainly they did not sit at table with the gentlefolk. I fear that their place was in the kitchen and that Lady Mary took her lessons in that room surrounded by the admiring maids.

But the only thing she "carved" was mutton or beef. You had to "break a deer, rear a goose, lift a swan, sauce a capon, spoil a hen, frush a chicken, unbrace a mallard, unlance a cony, dismount a heron, display a crane, disfigure a peacock, unjoint a bittern, untack a curlew, alaye a pheasant, wing a partridge or a quail, mince a plover, thigh a pigeon or any other small bird and border a game pie."

And the acquisition of these terms was only the beginning of knowledge.—London Queen.

FUNNY LITTLE "FIDDLER."

One of the Most Interesting Members of the Crab Family.

One of the most interesting members of the crab family is the queer and grotesque little "fiddler" which lives in burrows in the banks of creeks and estuaries back of the beach. Into these burrows the crab retires in autumn and composes itself for a long winter sleep. The eye stalks are then folded down into sockets beneath the shell and the large claw rests closed and inert against the body, while the legs are folded up until the entire animal is snugly closed upon itself, and it remains in this dormant condition until the spring. Early in April the fiddlers awaken and immediately attend to clearing out their burrows. The large claw is useless for eating, only the small one being available for this purpose. It is amusing to see the delicacy with which this little claw feels about and picks up the particles of vegetable matter and places them in the mouth, while the eyes are all the time raised aloft on their stalks and apparently looking off into the distance. The female crabs have both claws small and of equal size, so they are both used in feeding, and she can satisfy her hunger just twice as easily and quickly as the male. These fiddler crabs also gather food and store it in their burrows for future use.—St. Nicholas.

TEXT OF TREATY.

Among Other Things Free Pardon Granted Political Criminals.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 4.—The text of the imperial manifesto granting amnesty to political prisoners signed by Emperor Nicholas declares that by virtue of the intention expressed in manifesto of Oct. 20, to accord the population the inviolable principles of civil liberty, free pardon is granted political criminals of various categories, which are enumerated, and also participants in strikes and those responsible for the breaking of contracts. The pardon extends to those now in prison and to those not yet tried and those on whom sentence has not been pronounced. Persons convicted of crimes committed over ten years ago are to be released and sent to Siberian colonies. Those who now are colonists there will be allowed, after four years, choice of place of residence, but prohibited from living in the capitals, St. Petersburg and Moscow, for three years. Convicts not falling under these categories will have sentence reduced by one-half, and persons condemned to imprisonment for life will have sentence reduced to fifteen years' imprisonment. The pardon extends to all prisoners who have benefited by previous manifestos. Persons arrested by imperial order or administrative order are released. Those condemned to death are liable to have penitentiary sentence and commuted it to fifteen years' imprisonment at hard labor. The amnesty decree includes political offenses committed up to Oct. 20.

NINETEEN INJURED.

Train Dashes Into Another One Loaded with Tourists.

San Luis Obispo, Cal., Nov. 4.—A Southern Pacific southbound coast line limited train dashed into a train of tourists at Santa Margarita station, fourteen miles north of here. The tourist train was standing in the main yard at Santa Margarita when the limited dashed into the rear end, plowing its way through one of the cars. Nineteen persons were hurt, several seriously and two probably fatally. Elsie Blackmore, a girl nine years old, was pinned down in the wreckage. Her right arm was twisted out of shape and the bones crushed. She also received internal injuries which may prove fatal. Mrs. M. P. Martin of Otawa, Ia., is also in a condition which is considered serious.

PILLAGING STOPPED.

It Is Unsafe, However, to Be Upon the Streets at Odessa.

Odessa, Nov. 4.—Pillaging has been largely stopped, thanks to the intervention of troops and local militia, formed largely of students, but the streets are unsafe for all except sanitary officers and Sisters of Charity. The city presents the aspect of a military camp. Student militia pursues rioters, who defend themselves with revolvers.

VENGEANCE ON JEWS

They Appear to Be Special Objects of Mobs, Wrath.

MANY DIE AS RESULT

n Fifty Prominent Towns About One Thousand Persons Are Reported Killed and Ten Thousand Wounded.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 4.—Anti-Jewish disorders are reported from Theodosia, where a large number of Jews and others were burned to death. In a revolutionary outbreak in Kostromo many were killed or wounded. Rioting and anti-Jewish outrages occurred at Saratoff, where many shops were plundered. A bomb was thrown during the conflict between rioters and soldiers and several were killed or wounded. A dispatch from Rostoff-on-Don gives the official figures of Wednesday's rioting as thirty-four killed and 139 severely injured.

At a Socialistic mass meeting at Warsaw two infantry soldiers in full uniform delivered revolutionary addresses, assuring their hearers that the revolutionary propaganda was growing in the army and that the time was not far remote when the army would join in a revolution to overthrow a despotic throne. The meeting resolved to exclude newspapers, bankers and butchers, and cafes and restaurants, from the general strike.

A bomb was thrown into the telegraph office at Odessa and twelve telegraphers were killed or wounded.

From many of the interior cities come reports of conflicts in which the Jews appear to be the principal sufferers. In Kieff the loss of life and property has been very great. In Theodosia, Kostromo and Saratoff the disorders have been most serious. There was an unconfirmed report that Kishineff had been totally destroyed by fire.

A London newspaper's St. Petersburg correspondent estimates that in the leading fifty provincial towns of Russia 1,000 persons have been killed and 30,000 seriously wounded Friday.

The revolutionary movement in Finland is unchecked, the Finnish national guard opposing the advance of Russian troops and compelling them to retire.

PLUNDER, RAPINE, MURDER.

These Crimes Have Been Indulged in Since Grant of Constitution.

London, Nov. 4.—The Kieff correspondent of Reuter's Telegram Company, under date of November 3 says:

"The Jewish quarter has been given over to plunder, rapine and murder ever since the emperor announced the granting of a constitution. On that day during a monster demonstration in front of the town hall, a shot suddenly was heard. The Cossacks and Dragons immediately charged into the crowd firing right and left, and the police and others dragged away the dead and wounded, numbering more than 120, into the neighboring courtyards, while the terror-stricken demonstrators fled, pursued by a mob of ruffians, who attacked them as they ran."

A dispatch to the Daily Mail from St. Petersburg reports the discovery of a plot to massacre the Jews in that city.

The Daily Mail's Odessa correspondent gives an unconfirmed report that Kishineff has been absolutely burned. He says that the three suburbs of Odessa, Persessyp, Yastava and Moldavanika have been completely devastated.

The Kieff correspondent of the same paper says that the British consulate has been riddled with bullets. The situation, he adds, however, is improving, but during the riots bands of rowdies stopped everybody in carriage or afoot and compelled all to prove they were not Jews before permitting them to go on. Ladies dresses were torn open to discover if they were wearing crosses. The British consulate was stopped by soldiers with leveled rifles, who, however, permitted the mob to wreck the house of a wealthy Jew. Nearly all the houses and shops display ikons and other Christian emblems.

SPEEDY DAN PATCH.

Champion Pacer Equals World's Record Without a Wind Shield.

Memphis, Nov. 4.—In an exhibition mile Friday on the Memphis Trotting association's track, Dan Patch, the champion pacer, equaled the world's record without a wind shield, covering the distance in 1:59 1-4. This record has been held by Star Pointer for a number of years. At the second trial Hersey, the driver, nodded for the word and the black pacer put forth his best effort. The quarter was passed in 30 seconds, the half was reached in 59 1-2, and at the three-quarters pole the timers marked 1:29. Down the stretch for home Hersey urged his charge forward and the umpire was passed in the record time of 1:49 1-4.

TYPEWRITING CONTEST.

Winner Wrote Over Two Thousand Words in Thirty Minutes.

New York, Nov. 4.—The contest for the typewriter championship of the United States was held in Madison Square Garden. There were nineteen contestants. The winner of the first prize of $100 was Paul Hunter of this city, who wrote 2,099 words in thirty minutes. Miss Rose Fritz, also of New York, won the second prize of $50, with a record of 2,084 words in thirty minutes. Miss May Carrington of Springfield, Mass., was third, with a record of 2,004 words.

Birthday Celebrated.

Seoul, Nov. 4.—The birthday of the emperor of Japan was celebrated here Friday. At the Japanese headquarters foreigners as well as Japanese and Koreans, were elaborately entertained.
